Greetings Prayer Warriors,

Wow! What a day. A couple of exciting things happened today (in fact, in the last few hours) and we just had to share them with you.

*** PRAISE REPORTS ***

1. The business registration for One Voice for Asia (HK) Limited is finally complete. Thank you Jesus! And thank you to you for praying for us. It took a year, but it is done. We are so excited because now we can really begin to run with the vision that God has put in our hearts.
2. Our air tickets for our trip to the United States are paid for. When we got home from the city (about an hour ago) we had an e-mail from a friend in Hong Kong asking how much we still owed for our tickets. We e-mailed him back with the amount and he got right back to us saying that he would like to cover the outstanding balance for us. Wow! Isn't God good. He always comes through on time! Thank you for praying for us and standing with us to believe the Lord to release the finances.
3. Our upstairs neighbors, Peter and Natalie, are still together. They seem to be happier again and are no longer talking about getting a divorce. Thank you for praying into this area. Please continue to pray that the Lord would open the doors for us to minister to them and lead them to Jesus.
4. Our friend Jill Davey is out of the hospital. She is staying with other friends in the church because she has stairs at her home and is still unable to bear weight on her leg. And, the Lord provided finances for her to cover her rent for three months -- the period of time that she will be out of work. Thank you for praying for Jill and her needs.
5. We submitted the application to change the sponsor for Karen's visa today. The center for Learning Difficulties is applying to take over the sponsorship of her visa. We are looking forward to the possibilities that this will open up for us in the future.

As you can tell we are quite excited about what the Lord is doing in our lives and the lives of others here in Hong Kong. And, you are a part of that. Through your prayers you are partnering with us and participating in our ministry. Your prayers are making a difference. Thank you!

God bless,

Stephen & Karen
